

December 16, 2021 (4-6:30 pm)

University of Geneva

Online / Zoom

Quality of education in emergencies : Teachers matter

Speakers:

Mohammed Abdulla Albaili (Educators without borders)

Consuelo Guardia Macchiavello (ERDIE, Unige)

Naima Al-Husban (Arab Open University, Jordan)

Gabriella Muller (Unige)

Moussa Sagayar (University Abdou Moumouni, Niger)

Abdeljalil Akkari (ERDIE, Unige)

Myriam Radhouane (ERDIE/LIFE, Unige)

Moira Faul (NORRAG)

Quality of education in Emergencies: teachers matter December 16, 4:00-6:30 pm (Geneva time)

The University of Geneva invites you to join a webinar on Education in Emergencies. This webinar will present new research from the field in Niger, Kenya and Jordan. The presentations will cover:

- Examples of promising institutional initiatives to improve Education in Emergencies
- Insights on how stakeholders think and implement Education in Emergencies in Africa and the Middle East
- The benefits for children of a better teacher professional development in emergencies
- The potential value added of ICT for learning in emergencies

Programme

16:05 - 16:10- Introduction: Abdeljalil Akkari and Myriam Radhouane, University of Geneva (5 min)

16:10 - 16:30 - The need of a holistic perspective in education in emergencies, Mohammed Abdulla Albaili, Educators Without Borders (Geneva), (20 min)

16:30 - 16:50: Review of recent research on Education in Emergencies, Consuelo Guardia Macchiavello, University of Geneva (20 min)

16:50 -17:10: Education in emergencies: case study in Jordan, Naima Al-Husban, Arab Open University AOU, Jordan (20 min)

17:10 -17:30: Education in Emergencies: case study in Kenya, Gabriela Muller, University of Geneva (20 min)

17:30 -17:50 Education in Emergencies: case study in Niger, Moussa Sagayar, University Abdou Moumouni, Niger (20 min)

17:50-18:00 Collecting Research Data in emergencies, Moira Faul , NORRAG, Geneva (10 min)

18:00-18:30 Discussion: QA session, (40 min)

We look forward to your participation!

Registration: <https://forms.gle/XqA7AqSpHtENk36MA>