

(c)UNICEF/Velasquez

HUMANITARIAN TALK AT THE EUROPEAN HUMANITARIAN FORUM

GENEVA GLOBAL HUB FOR EDUCATION IN EMERGENCIES
JOIN THE DOTS TO FORM A LINE: EDUCATION IN EMERGENCIES, CHILD PROTECTION, AND THE POTENTIAL FOR BETTER HUMANITARIAN ACTION

 MONDAY, 21 MARCH 2022 | 12:30 - 13:30 CET
 VIRTUAL - GO TO: HTTPS://BIT.LY/3IIP1ZF
A "LIVE" TAB WILL APPEAR AT THE START OF EVENT

BACKGROUND

The Humanitarian Talk will allow participants to learn and discuss the state of collaboration between education in emergencies and child protection – both in terms of programming and coordination. We will talk about promising country-level examples of collaboration, as well as which areas require more investment.

PROGRAMME

OPENING REMARKS
Ambassador Felix Baumann, Deputy Permanent Representative, Permanent Mission of Switzerland to the UN

PANELISTS
Henry Renna Gallano, Education Cluster Coordinator, Venezuela
Lucy Mbarago, Field Officer in Yambio, UNICEF South Sudan
Mariana Arnautu, Senior Expert, Education and Child Protection, Word Vision Romania on the Ukraine response
Dieuwerke Luiten, Global Grant Manager, Porticus

Followed by an interactive Q&A discussion

CLOSING REMARKS
Mark Chapple, Head of Education, ICRC

MODERATOR
Petra Heusser, Coordinator of the Geneva Global Hub for EiE

