

KIX EAP Podcast – Episode #22: Qualitative Research in Development and knowledge exchange in the Pacific with Elizabeth Cassity

Speaker biographical note

Dr Elizabeth Cassity is a Senior Research Fellow in the Education and Development Program at Australian Council for Educational Research (ACER). She has research expertise in a variety of educational fields, such as teacher-professional learning, government partnerships, student learning, and equity. Dr Cassity has worked as a researcher in various capacities throughout the world, including in Fiji, Timor-Leste, Vanuatu, Brazil, Zimbabwe, and Namibia. ACER has facilitated Learning Cycle 3: Integration of 21st Century Skills (21CS) in Curriculum through KIX, along with hosting two Webinars, "Using data to improve learning: Engaging with policy and reform" and "Learning assessments and education reform in the EAP region". Dr Cassity holds an Honorary Lecturer title at the University of Sydney, and formerly was a Visiting Researcher at the State University of Rio de Janeiro. She also has a BA from Southern Methodist University and an MA and PhD from Teachers College, Columbia University.