

KIX EMAP Podcast – Episode #30: What Are the Most Pressing Education Issues in Pakistan? Three Local Experts Discuss

Speaker Biographical Note

Zahid Majeed

Director

Academic Planning and Course Production,
Allama Iqbal Open University (AIOU)
Pakistan

Zahid Majeed is the Director of Academic Planning and Course Production at AIOU, Islamabad. He holds a Ph.D. in Special/Inclusive Education from AIOU and international degrees from Roehampton University, London, Charles University, Czech Republic, and Fontys International, Holland, showcasing his commitment to advancing knowledge and expertise in the field. Zahid's roles also include Director of International Collaboration & Exchange Office and freelance consultant. Through engagement with UNESCO in Paris, he served as a reviewer for the 'Guidelines Learning for All: Guidelines on the Inclusion of Learners with Disabilities in Open and Distance Learning. This involvement reflects his commitment to promoting inclusive education practices on a global scale. Participating in over 100 conferences, Zahid shapes education through research and collaboration, nationally and internationally, underscoring his commitment to inclusive education's advancement. In 2019, Zahid undertook a consultancy project in Inclusive Education in Afghanistan, and currently, he is engaged in a country lead role for KIX/IDRC, Canada.